The musical score is written for voice and piano. It begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a 4/4 time signature. The tempo is marked 'Allegro moderato' and the initial dynamic is 'mf'. The piano accompaniment features a steady eighth-note bass line and chords in the right hand. The vocal line enters with a melody that includes two variations: '1. If you'd' and '2. If you'd'. The lyrics are a humorous list of campus activities and locations. The score includes a 'Refrain' section marked with a double bar line and a repeat sign, followed by a final section marked 'f deciso' with a crescendo hairpin.

The musical score is written for voice and piano. It consists of two systems. The first system has a vocal line and a piano accompaniment. The vocal line is in G major, starting on a whole note G4, followed by quarter notes A4, B4, C5, D5, E5, and a half note F#5. The piano accompaniment features a steady eighth-note bass line in the left hand and chords in the right hand. The second system continues the vocal line with the lyrics 'far away or near, Ev'ry one of us will hear When Simmons sends us her call.' The piano accompaniment includes dynamic markings: 'cresc.' at the beginning and 'ff un poco rit.' towards the end. The score concludes with a double bar line.

When the Gold and Blue bids you Goodbye

CLASS OF 1921

Tune, "Little Gray Home"

When the Gold and Blue bids you good-by,
 And the joys of your short stay are o'er,
 Though the road may be long,
 Still our love will be strong
 For the class we have loved heretofore.
 And our thoughts will be frequently drawn
 To the class we have played with here;
 And the cares of the day
 Will be all charmed away
 By the mem'ries we'll always hold dear.
